Creativity Unlimited Arts Council will have its fourth annual Herb Market and Sale on May 2 and 3 in downtown North Platte at Fifth and Jeffers. Proceeds from the event will be used for the renovation of the 1913 post office building into an arts center.

A variety of herbs will be featured, including Dill, Rosemary, Thyme, Greek Oregano, Sage, Lavender, Marjoram, Cilantro, Sweet and Genovese Basil, Chives, Curly and Italian Parsley, and French Tarragon.

The sale will also include heirloom tomato plants and books on gardening and herbs. A number of art items made by local artists also will be offered including Plant Markers, Birdhouses, Gourds, Hypertufa Pots, Yarden Art, Wabi Sabi Gardens and Slumped Glass Trays.

A gardener's potting bench built by Paul Jeske and Ron Meyer and a set of gardener's hand tools, will be given away in a drawing at the CUAC's annual Herb Market and Sale.
