Hula & Homicide

Directed by: Glenn Van Velson

Hula legend Winnie Waheli, is found dead on Kikiwai Beach early on the morning of the annual hula contest.

Winnie has made quite a few enemies through the years and one of them has done her in. She was known as the Hula Honcho. Winnie Waheli was the head judge at the annual hula contest on Kikiwai Beach. Once regarded as the most accomplished annual hula contest on Kikiwai Beach. Once the most accomplished dancer in all of Hawaii, Winnie's career abruptly ended two decades ago when one of her more strenuous moves produced a recurring medical problem that prevented her from ever competing again professionally. That's when she was hired by the Kikiwai Queen Hotel to organize orchestrate the hula event. Each year, Winnie made a point of meeting the competitors and talking to the press, all the while ensuring that she was the center of attention.

Tonight would have been the night that Winnie and this year's hula extravaganza would once again make headlines. But all is not well in paradise, for someone must have taken exception to Winnie's overbearing antics. This morning, her lifeless body was found on the very beach where she had achieved both fame and fortune, the seeming victim of foul play.

Who would dare end the career of the maven of movement? Could someone have plotted the death of the darling of divatude? Or, was this just the result of a temper tantrum by a close associate? It would take a unique perspective and expert investigative skills to identify the guilty party.

And don't forget to come dressed to kill in your Hawaiian attire.

The Members of the Creative Unlimited Arts Council invite you to come enjoy this deliciously fun filled evening with lots of surprises too.

REMEMBER: $_____ Individual dinner tickets at $50 per person is $18.75 tax-deductible.
